

Instructions for authors

The length of the abstract should not exceed 1,000 words, including the title, author's names and affiliations (font: Times New Roman, font size 12, line spacing 1.5 with 2.5 cm margins, justified and without hyphenation). Electronic abstract submission is possible in Microsoft Word (.doc, .docx) and .rtf formats.

The abstract should be arranged in the following manner:

Title (bold): New data on celestine-rich salts

Author(s): Jan Nowak¹, Piotr Kowalski²

Affiliation(s): ¹Institution, address and email

²Institution, address and email

Body text

References (if you wish)

Figure (only one) and figure caption (if so desired)

References should be in alphabetical order. References written in Latin script should be provided in their original form. Cyrillic references should be transliterated into Latin script according to the given international standards (ISO recommendation). References within the text should be cited in the following manner: one author) Kowalski (1985) or (Kowalski 1985); two authors) Kowalski & Nowak (1997) or (Kowalski & Nowak 1997); more than two authors) Kowalski et al. (1996) or (Kowalski et al. 1996).

For more information see: <https://journals.agh.edu.pl/geol>

Black-and-white or colour figure should be prepared as a separate file and be supplied as high resolution (minimum 300 dpi) electronic graphics files and saved as png, jpg or TIF. In the printed version of the abstract, the figure's width should not exceed 85 mm and the maximum height is 226 mm. It will be oriented vertically. Particular attention should be paid to maintaining the appropriate size of letters in figures which may be reduced during zooming. The figure caption must be placed at the end of the text.

For the abstract, please use the following file name format:

last_name_of_the_first_author_2018_ceteg.file_extension (e.g. Nowak_2018_ceteg.docx).

For figures use: last_name_of_the_first_author_2018_ceteg_figure.file_extension (e.g.

Nowak_2018_ceteg_figure.jpg).

If you submit abstract and figure file you must compress it to a single archive file (zip or rar) and submit a single file.

For archives use the following file name format:

last_name_of_the_first_author_2018_ceteg.file_extension (e.g. Nowak_2018_ceteg.zip).

If you submitting more than one abstract as the first author, please use a number followed by your name.